

Becoming a Grocery Chain

Coborn's has become one of the largest and most successful independent grocery chains in the country. Today, the company has diversified with 120 retail locations, including its two distinctive supermarket brands, as well as convenience stores, pharmacies, liquor stores, and CobornsDelivers. But it all started with one grocery store in the small Central Minnesota town of Sauk Rapids in 1921. Here's a look at the growth of the company's grocery stores:
